MUSIC LOG 2005

A black and white photograph of a school building. The building is a two-story structure with a flat roof and several windows. A large, bare tree branch hangs down from the top of the frame. The foreground is a dark, grassy area. The text "MHS LOG 2005" is printed in a large, bold, serif font across the middle of the image.

Above left: Thanks to Megan Loughnane's hard work, all the advertisements were placed with precision and looked great! Above center: Yearbook isn't all about working hard! Megan Loughnane and Leah Gunner take a break to surprise Katie O'Koniewski with a cake on her 18th birthday. Above right: During one of the late night meetings, Emily Rowlands admires a senior portrait before placing it in the book. Below left: Yearbook Advisor Ms. O'Grady worked hard with Co-Editors-in-Chief Katie O'Konjewski and Leah Gunner to create a unique and successful the Log 2005. Bottom right: The staff members crowd around to get a piece of delicious Johnny's Foodmaster cake. Yummy!

"Another turing point, a fork stuck in the road/Time grabs you by the wrist, directs you where to go./So make the best of this test, and don't ask why/It's not a question, but a lesson learned in time/It's something unpredictable, but in the end it's right/I hope you had the time of your life." -Good Riddance (Time Of Your Life), Green Day

Dear LOG 2005 Staff:

Creating a yearbook is a tremendous responsibility that often goes unrecognized because of its "behind the scenes" work. Deadlines are strict, finances are tight, and the production hours are long. Each of you has surpassed any expectations that I had for this year's club. You met every deadline and created many original page layouts for LOG 2005. Your personalities shine through the pages of the book! You have all shown such spirit, commitment, and excellence, and this year's book is a testament to that. I am so very proud of all of you and the work that you have done. It has truly been a pleasure working with all of you!

Best wishes,
Ms. O'Grady

Above left: Liza Montani and Margarita Kurlyanchik enjoyed creating pages for the yearbook, and checking out the pictures of the soccer boys! Above center: "Wow that's an embarrassing picture! Let's put that one in!" Co-Editors Leah Gunner and Katie O'Koniewski always enjoyed the job of picking out pictures for the yearbook. Above right: Johnny's Foodmaster Cake, only the best for the Log 2005 staff! Bottom left: After spending hours working on pages, Leah Gunner and Bobby Farr enjoy taking a quick break to pose for the camera. Bottom right: Make wish! Katie O'Koniewski celebrates her birthday with the yearbook staff!

Our Greatest Hits

LOG 2005

*"There are places I remember
All my life though some have changed
Some forever not for better
Some have gone and some remain
All these places have their moments
With lovers and friends I still can recall
Some are dead and some are living
In my life I've loved them all"*

-In My Life, The Beatles

Since we embarked on our journey through the Melrose Public School system, our final destination has been graduation. Along the way, we have taken with us the friends we have made, the obstacles we have overcome, the lessons we have learned, and the memories that we have shared. Through the tears, the laughter, the embarrassments, the decisions, and the accomplishments, we have blossomed into mature young adults. Our unique characteristics have shaped the Class of 2005 into a group of strong, passionate, and successful individuals. As we move on, we may choose to forget certain memories, but the Greatest Hits of our young adulthood will always remain close to our hearts.

Over the years, we, the Class of 2005 have had many great moments and times spent together. We all can remember the first day of high school, when we jumped into the midst of the crowded hallways. Although Dr. Burke called us "minnows in a shark tank" during our freshman year, we have since grown up and become more than just the "sharks of the school." We are academics. We are leaders. We are athletes. We are artists. Most importantly though, we are friends who will end our high school careers together as the Class of 2005. As a class, we have shared many great moments at dances, in the classroom, at games, in the auditorium, and at all class events. We grew up listening to music and we have learned that for every great moment, there is a great song that accompanies it. The LOG 2005 documents these great moments with pictures, captions, and songs. Unlike any class before them, the Class of 2005 now has their own Greatest Hits, album and yearbook. These are the places we will remember.

Dedication

Throughout Ms. Quinn's 6 years at Melrose High School, she has contributed greatly to the school's community and has enriched the lives of all the MHS students. A veteran guidance counselor at MHS, the seniors can always rely on Ms. Quinn to ease their college worries and work hard to help them succeed. She will listen to you, laugh with you, and offer you advice pertaining to any situation. Because of her gracious and accepting personality, the students at MHS have always trusted Ms. Quinn, as both a friend and counselor. Whether cheering her students on at championship basketball game or chaperoning the Winter Ball, Ms. Quinn's dedication to her students is evident through all her hard work and support.

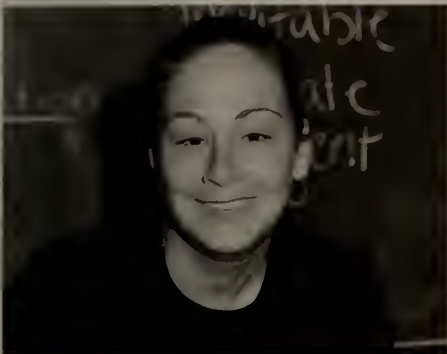

Although she began her career at MHS as a guidance counselor, Ms. Quinn has taken on many more roles since she first came to Melrose High. After advising the Class of 2003, Ms. Quinn decided to take on an even more time consuming and demanding job, as Student Council Advisor. Over the last two years, Ms. Quinn revived the Student Council. Due to her innovation and hard work, Ms. Quinn helped launch numerous Student Council projects over the past two years that all the students at MHS have taken part in and enjoyed. This year alone, the Student Council has accomplished a great deal, thanks to Ms. Quinn. In the beginning of the year, Student Council organized the first successful Homecoming Dance in three years. During the holiday season, Student Council raised over $500 for a Battered Women's Shelter. After the devastating Tsunami, the school raised $1500, largely due to Ms. Quinn's and the Student Council's hard work. Without Ms. Quinn's energy and dedication, the student body would not have as many events to enjoy and opportunities to contribute to society.

Thank you Ms. Quinn for all your hard work and commitment to your students. We appreciate all the time you spend helping improve our school community and our lives. We thank you for helping us get this far, and we will sincerely miss your energy and character. For all the time that you have dedicated to us, we, the Class of 2005, dedicate this book to you. The future student body at Melrose High School is fortunate to have someone like you to advise them and support them in all that they do. Thank you!

Senior Class Advisors

"And then a hero comes along with the strength to carry on/And you cast your fears aside and you know you can survive/So when you feel like hope is gone, look inside you and be strong/And you'll finally see the truth, that a hero lies in you." - Hero, Mariah Carey

Ms. Pascarell

Ms Gilmartin

To the Class of 2005:

All of us are in the gutter, but some of us are looking at the stars
Oscar Wilde

One of the reasons this is a favorite quotation is because it shows how all of us start out in the same place, but some of us dare to imagine and dream. Everyone is capable of dreams, and everyone is capable of reaching for those shining dreams and making them a reality. What dreams do you have for yourselves?

Working with you for the past two years has been an inspiring and fun-filled experience. When we took over as Class Advisors your junior year, neither of us was sure what to expect. Soon, you impressed us with your wit and compassion, and with your dedication and intelligence. You set an excellent example for the rest of the school. Through the years and events from the Sophomore Field Day, the Junior Prom at the Crowne Plaza (a resounding success!), Junior Day of Service, the Halloween Dance, Spirit Week to the Powder Puff Football games, you have shown integrity and style in all that you do.

This year you made your mark with various accomplishments. Athletics alone has persevered to new heights with exceptional seasons. From your individual successes and tournament births to League Title; you expected the best from yourselves and accepted nothing less. Your generosity will not be forgotten as you donated time and money to causes held deep in your hearts, from the Tsunami Relief, Battered Women's Shelter, Operation Smile, our city beautification efforts, and SADD painting our bathrooms. You have earned our respect as well as the respect of the faculty and administration.

As you spend these last days as a high school senior, before you don your red caps and gowns and sit out on that football field all together as one class for the last time, think about what really matters to you as you shape your dreams. Value all the moments of your lives, both the small and the momentous. Remember the tough times you faced, how you faced those challenge and came out on the other side, stronger, smarter and braver. You can learn and grow from all of it. Don't forget any of it.

A pop quiz: Ready? Name 5 Noble Prize winners, Name 5 Pulitzer Prize winners. Name 5 winners of the Academy Awards. Name 5 U.S. Presidents. How'd you do? Now, name 5 people who have really been there for you. Name 5 people who can always make you laugh. Name 5 teachers over the years who have let you know that count, you matter, to them. Name 5 people whom you love, who will always love you back.

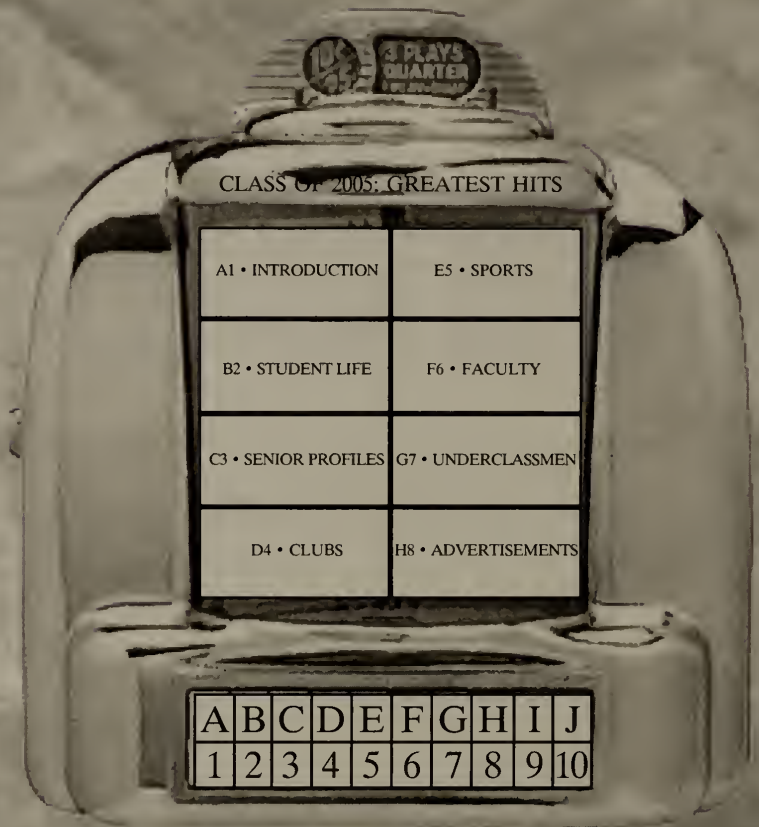

Saying goodbye is bittersweet. As you go out into the world, whether it is to college, trade school, military service or into the workforce, remember what really matters. While you may not realize your ambitions in a few months or even next year, it will happen. It will probably take hard work, some failure and success, but with those 20 people you could name about (and not the presidents and Pulitzer prize winners), supporting you, standing behind you, lifting you up and encouraging you, you can achieve it.

So, go out into the world knowing that you are not alone. What dreams do you have for yourselves? We hope your dreams include challenging yourselves, physically, mentally and emotionally. We hope they include you striving to be the best you can be, and at being the most decent, honorable person you can be. Don't be afraid to try. Don't be afraid to fall. Don't be afraid to ask for help. Don't be afraid to succeed. Don't be afraid to reach for your dreams; don't forget to look at the stars.

Congratulations!

Ms. Gilmartin and Ms. Pascarell
Advisors to the Class of 2005

NOW PLAYING: STUDENT LIFE

In just four years, we have all accomplished so much. In the words of Dr. Burke, we entered as "the minnows of the fish tank" and now we are leaving as the big sharks! These four years have been filled with an endless amount of activities, memories, and fun! As freshmen, we celebrated the end of the year with a semi-formal. A year later, we found ourselves on the Cabbage Patch for Field Day, participating in tug-of-war competitions, eating fresh barbecue, and storming the slush stand! During our junior year, we not only resurrected the Powder Puff tradition, but we also headed to the Crowne Plaza and danced up a storm at our Junior Prom! Before we all knew it, senior year approached us. Despite the grueling applications and the mounting amounts of school-work, we still have all managed to unite as a class and enjoy our senior year. Our Halloween dance was a huge success and Spirit Week ignited feelings of pride throughout the student body (thanks to the awesome seniors, of course!). For the first time in many years, we had a Homecoming dance, attended by almost half the school. Our senior year has been amazing so far, and we all look forward to the achievements, events, and memories that we will make by the end of the year.

Above left: Wesley Huynh, Mike Fitzpatrick, and Greg Webster show evidence of a brotherly bond even before they were all members of the swim team. Above center: Justin McLeod pauses to regain his strength in the rigorous Tug of War championships. Jessica Snyder, Valerie Lucas, and Nicole DeSimone use all their muscles to defeat the other team! Above right: Jill Sherlock shows Matt McKnight the proper Tug of War competition in order to guarantee victory.

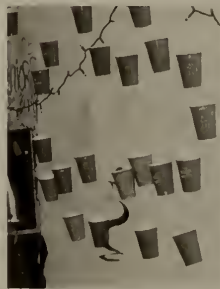

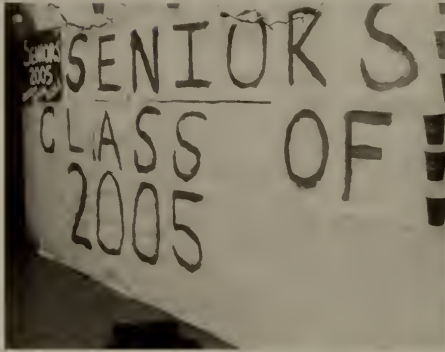

The Sophomore Field Day was a huge success, and virtually every member of the Class of 2005 opted to attend this event instead of spending their day in the classroom! Throughout the day, teams competed against one another in a variety of events, including tug of war, water balloon throwing contests, and a giant-style of volleyball! A DJ provided the music, and teachers barbecued and served slush! Everyone that attended had an awesome time, and it was a great way to end Sophomore year! Top left: From the look on his face, it is evident that Brian Colborne is using every muscle in his body to win this tug of war! Top center: Nichole Lombardo, Jackie Lessing, and Amanda Desmond are soaked after getting into a water balloon fight! Top right: This team is all smiles after winning the water balloon contest! Middle left: A little slush and water balloons made this hot day bearable and this group is all smiles for the camera! Middle center: The day's big event was the Tug of War competition, and this team prepares to come out the winner. Center right: Chrissie Cronin, Danielle Dausiewicz, and Liza Montani avoid getting hit with a water balloon, courtesy of one of the mischievous boys in our class. Far left: Julie Forbes, Jess Porter, and Lauren Welch had a blast during Field Day, and their smiles show it. Left: What kind of Volleyball is that? It's the Class of 2005's version: Giant Volleyball!

Spirit Week 2004

Monday, Nov. 22: Class Colors/Hallway Decorating Day, Powder Puff

Tuesday, Nov. 23: College Sweatshirt Day, Homecoming Dance

Wednesday, Nov. 24: Red & White Day, Pep Rally

Class Colors

Seniors '05: Blue

Juniors '06: Pink

Sophomores '07:

Yellow

Freshmen '08: Green

Spirit Week made a comeback in 2004! Sponsored by Student Council and Student Government, spirit ran rampant throughout the hallways and classrooms of MHS! No amount of pictures could capture the energy and liveliness of MHS during this week! Top: The Senior Student Government "jumps on it" during their skit at the Pep Rally. Top left: Bobby Farr took time off of his busy Sunday night to help decorate the Senior Hallway! Top center: One of the many banners that showed off Senior pride at MHS. Top right: Liz Lahiff goes crazy with the streamers as the bland hallways of MHS are transformed into a sea of blue sparkles, banners, and cups! Middle left: The Quarterbacks of the MHS football and powder puff teams, Mike Kent and Andrea Campbell. Middle center: Megan Loughnane can hardly contain her excitement at the thought of Spirit Week! Middle right: Despite not having much of a plan, these seniors proved that decorating is an art that comes naturally to the Class of 2005. Above left: Leah Gunner, Liz Parro, and Katie O'Koniewski embrace the start of Spirit Week by wearing as much blue as possible! Above center: A few of the 235 cups bearing the names of all the members of the Class of 2005. Above right: The Spirit at MHS spread all the way to the Guidance Office, where Amanda Kahlcin, Ms. Talbot, Betty Krechmer, Ms. Quinn, and Edward Hairston show off their college sweatshirts! Bottom right: Nicole DeSimone and Jill Sherlock break out the paint and brushes to create the "Know Your Role" banner. Bottom far right: Jen Garrity and Sloane Grace are filled with spirit for MHS and one another!

POWDER PUFF FOOTBALL GAME

*"I get knocked down, but I get up again/You're never gonna keep me down/I get knocked down, but I get up again/You're never gonna keep me down"-
Tubthumping, Chumbawamba*

Seniors

Vs.

Juniors

The annual Powder Puff Football game was the most anticipated event of spirit week for everyone at MHS. Everyone went out to cheer on his or her favorite team and watch as the seniors tore up the field against the juniors. Although the seniors lost in triple overtime, everyone had a blast playing. Top left: Before the game, Danielle Dausiewicz and Betty Krechmer smile before they get serious and put on their game faces. Top middle: Grrr... Superfan Susan Tremonte is decked out in her super spirited senior attire ready to cheer on her girls. Top right: Liz Parro, Toni Lopresti, Katie O'Koniewski, Lauren Welch, and Lindsay Bosen can't see the outcome of the game as well as Danielle Dausiewicz as she predicts "Triple Overtime." Middle right: "We want more!" The seniors are ready to go into overtime. Bottom left: The senior coaching staff of Chris Keohane, Matt McKnight, Greg Wehster, Mike Kent, Mr. Moss, Luke Cerretani, and Brian Colborne are credited for getting the girls ready for victory. Bottom middle: Chrissie Cronin and Liza Montani congratulate each other after ripping the flags away from the juniors or should we say "Tackling the juniors." Bottom right: During half time, Liz Parro, Shawna Minghella, and Leah Gunner stand with their hands on their waist, agreeing that something needs to be done to win this game.

Top left: Underclassmen Angela White, Gianna Grisanty, Sarah Tullis, Sandra Valdez, Lindsay Milano, and Christina Maffeo take time out of dancing to pose for a picture. Top right: Seniors Shawna Mingella and Kristin Began show their pearly whites with juniors Jilly Cefalo and Maria Cammarata. Middle left: Juniors Margaret Scully, Jenna Larson, Karer Sen, Megan McClory, Liz Sheerin, Erin Clougherty, Maura Coveney, and Paula Sen hog the dance floor for this group picture. Middle right: After busting a move on the dance floor seniors Leah Gunner, Katie O'Koniewski, and Caitlin Kingsbury take a break for the camera. Bottom left: Our homecoming king nominees Anthony Tippet, Edward Hairston, Nick Cappellucci, Tim Ward, Nick Stein, and Garrett Dibona with our homecoming queen nominees Nicole Trudeau, Jackie Lessing, Toni LoPresti, Liz Lahiff, Betty Krechmer, and Liz Parro. Bottom right: Rema Sleiman and Nicole Trudeau stop and ask themselves "What song is the DJ playing?"

*"Takin' my time/In a white limousine/If I was the King/

Top left: Outside to get some fresh air, seniors Lauren Welch, Aleq Quinn, and Toni Lupresti get close with some sophomore boys. Top right: Ana Tocco, Mark Tarlow and Maria Cammarata have a good time at the dance. Right: Nick Cappellucci and Robbie Blake congratulate Edward Hairston on becoming king. Below Left: Juniors Gioia Dimare and Kaitlyn Gunner look good for the camera. Below right: Sporting the shades Patrick Loughnane tries to disguise himself.

MR. MELROSE 2004

"There she is, Miss America/There she is, your ideal/With so many beauties/She took the town by storm/With her All-American face and form"-Official Miss America Theme Song

HOT TEE

Every year, the Melrose High School Student Council organizes the Mr. Melrose "beauty" pageant. Part competition, part entertainment, the contest evaluates the contestant's formal wear, casual wear, talent and swimsuit. Although graduated senior Dave Forrest (who could forget his rendition of "All That Jazz") won the 2004 competition, our own 2005 Justin McLeod was the runner up! This year's Mr. Melrose will be as fierce and as entertaining as ever, and we all look forward to seeing who will be the new Mr. Melrose! Top left: Ryan Terry prepares to back flip his way into first place! Top right: Is that Greg Webster? Nope! It's Chris Gilligan showing off his rockhard abs and his perfect pushups! Bottom left: Melrose's very own Michael Jackson, a.k.a. Justin McLeod, performs a flawless Moonwalk. Bottom middle left: Mike Kent takes a time out to answer a few questions after showing the audience his Irish Step Dancing skills. Above left: Susan Tremonte escorts and shows off to the crowd Brian Morrissey. Above right: The contestants and their escorts watch Justin McLeod breakdance on the stage.

NOW PLAYING SENIOR PROFILES

For the last four years, it seemed as if we were never going to leave MHS. Nevertheless, the time has come, and we realize how fast those four years went by. For every little accomplishment we have made, we are proud of ourselves. Leaving MHS is going to be one of the hardest things we will probably ever have to do. As we are leaving, we should all realize that our lives are really just beginning to step into what will be our futures. Our thousands of memories we have all made through all the years at MHS will always be remembered.

NOW PLAYING: CLUBS

For many students at MHS, the bell at 2:11 does not signal the end of the day. Instead of going home, students remain at school and spend their time participating in a number of extracurricular activities. Melrose High offers its students an array of activities to broaden students understanding of the world and themselves. These activities expose students to local, national, and international issues and they also provide students with a number of opportunities to make a difference in the community. With their clubs, students have created community service activities, traveled the world, and gained keen insight into areas of their interest. Without these activities, Melrose High School would not be as enjoyable and the students would not be as productive, educated, and well-rounded.

DRAMA

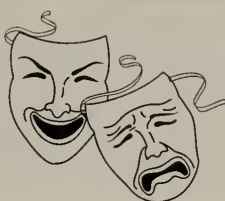

Top Left: The wonderful Miss Tanja Hiti- the most dedicated theatre director ever- gives a lovely smile at her podium. Top Right: The cast and crew of Defying Gravity, the Barry Auditorium's final fall play has the seniors feeling nostalgic. They include Taylor Faulstich and Katie Nadeau in charge of publicity, Alyssa Giangregorio, Paige Zaferiou, Electra Pearson, Presidents of Drama, Katherine Mooney and Anna Norcross, and the Treasurer David Lucey.

"Ground Control to Major Tom/Commencing countdown/Engines on"- Space Oddity, David Bowie

In November, the MHS Drama Club soared with their fall play, Defying Gravity, by Jane Anderson. Defying Gravity explained the spectrum of individuals effected by the 1986 Challenger Disaster. The production showcased senior actors Taylor Faulstich, Alyssa Giangregorio, David Lucey, Katharine Mooney, and Elektra Pearson. Seniors on the technical crew included Katie Nadeau, Anna Norcross, and Paige Zaferiou. Both the cast and crew came together to produce an emotionally profound performance. Competition in March, as part of the club's annual theatre festival, brought Audience by Michael Frayn to the stage. Once again, the drama club surpassed expectations, portraying a delightfully funny, although somewhat rambunctious audience watching a play. The seniors would like to thank Miss Hiti for four fabulous years of Drama, and best of luck to the future of the MHS Drama Club!

Top left: Assistant Stage Manager Nick Perry and Senior Stage Managers Anna Norcross and Katie Nadeau emerge from their usual dark work setting. Top right: After delivering an exceptional performance, the cast and crew of Defying Gravity, use the Barry Auditorium as their red carpet to take pictures. Middle above left: Playing a retired couple, Kelsey Nagle (Betty) and Michael Handelman (Ed) enjoy an evening at a bar before returning to their Winnebago. Middle above right: Elektra Pearson (Teacher) comforts daughter Elizabeth Leonard (Elizabeth) in Defying Gravity. Bottom left: Barmaid Katharine Mooney (Donna) faces her fears with the help of astronaut Elektra Pearson (Teacher). Bottom right: Don't worry those glasses are only props! NOW PLAYING: SPORTS

The athletic teams at Melrose High School create an atmosphere of camaraderie, spirit, and pride. As members of these teams, students pursue their passions to work hard, form special bonds with teammates, and become excellent student athletes. Through their focused attitudes and hours spent training to win, these athletes represent the high caliber of athletics at Melrose High School. Our athletes have brought home championship banners, statewide distinctions, and a unique school spirit that does not compare to any other school. Win or lose, Melrose High School athletes keep their heads held high and will always remain a part of the unified athletic community. Although the games may end, the wonderful memories of games, practices, and team events will remain with a Melrose athlete forever.

The 2004 Boys Cross Country team had a tough season. At the beginning of the year, the team had very high expectations. However, it was difficult for the team to achieve their goals in the Middlesex League, one of the most competitive leagues in the state. The team finished the year with a 3-6 record. The nine seasons leaving the team wish the remaining seven underclassmen good luck next year.

The 2004-2005 girls' cross-country team had a very successful season. After losing several top runners to graduation, the underclassmen stepped up. The team finished their season with a 4-5 record. Co-Captains, Kelly Murphy and Katie Johnson, along with seniors, Anne Fabricant, Perry Doherty, Val Lucas, and Diana Morgan led the team throughout the season. From hot summer practices to frigid November State meets, the girls persevered and put forth their strongest efforts. Congratulations to the cross-country team, the seniors will be truly missed! Good luck next year girls!

M-H-S! MELROSE! Led by co-captains Laura Hillery and Katie O'Koniewski, the MHS Girl's Varsity Swim Team experienced a memorable season, marked by a spirited attitude. With one of the largest teams in the past few years, the girls went into every meet with a large amount of depth, talent, and spirit. The swim team achieved their goals with wins against their biggest rivals, Wakefield and Stoneham. Overall, the girls had an outstanding season, filled with personal best times and exciting meets. The girls also gained great meet experience with a non-league meet versus five-time state champion Andover. Although their final league record was only 3-5, the girls are ready to work hard all year and enter next season with just as much spirit, and even more talent. The swim girls of 2004 will always remember crazy bus drivers, getting stuck on a one way street, attempting to "attack" field hockey, beating Stoneham, pasta parties, and dance parties in the parking lot, on top of Margaret's car, on the bus, and at the Clougherty's! GREAT JOB AND GOOD LUCK SWIM GIRLS!

The 2004 Melrose High School golf team finished off the season with an exceptional record of 8-1. The team did not face many challenges during the season until the final two matches against Woburn and Lexington. More than half of the matches came toward the end of the season, when the team was faced with a match a day for five consecutive days. After winning the first four matches of this five day stretch, the players knew that they still had some work ahead of them when they would visit Woburn on that Friday. The team came up short, losing by a mere two points, bringing their undefeated record to an end. They went on to defeat Lexington in their final match of the season, and to find out that Woburn had lost to Stoneham on that same day, leaving both teams at 8-1 and tied for co-champions of the Middlesex League. The Melrose golf team was led this year by co-captains and the only two seniors Dave Murphy (in his second year at number one), and John O'Neill (number three). George Brickley and Jeff Viola were the two strongest juniors on the team, and will lead the way next year as captains. Ben Joslin and Ray Devereaux remained at their five and six positions all year, and Ben Vainer and Bobby Murphy closed off the starting line-up. Junior Evan Easterbrooks and sophomore Nick Porcaro were the two leading alternates, and Easterbrooks stepped in at the number seven spot for five of the nine matches, winning four and losing one. With only two of the players graduating this year, a repeat of this season is not out of reach for next year's 2005 golf team.

The 2004 Volleyball season was another successful one for the Lady Red Raiders. Led by tri-captains Kerry Dillon, Betty Krechmer, and Paula Sen, the team finished the season 20-4, clinching their second consecutive Middlesex League title. With the help of three Middlesex League All-Stars- Kerry Dillon and Paula Sen (also All-League Players) and Karen Sen (also a Boston Globe All-Scholastic)- the Lady Raiders defender their Division II North Title. Seniors Meryl Binder, Jessica Laundre, Jessica Porter, and Andrea Campbell all contributed greatly to the amazing success of the team. Without Coach of the Year Scott Celli and Coach Steven Wall, the amazing girls and their season would not have been the same. The girls played every game with heart and determination. The Lady Raiders will always remember their hard-fought victories and will take many great memories with them always. "Trophies carry dust. MEMORIES LAST FOREVER." You ladies are the best! Good luck seniors!

The boys soccer team ended the season 4-11-3, all in all better than last year but still below what the team was expecting. On the field the squad was led by senior co-captains Alex Altonaga and Jeff Hurd. Throughout the season the team received strong performances from seniors Zak Ahrens and Nick Lento in defense. While Brendan Limone lead the attack with Hurd. The Red Raiders also saw strong play from sophomore Jake Beckley and junior Mike Simieola. The season ended on a high note with Melrose beating Wakefield 2-1 to keep them out of the state tournament after previously losing 1-0.

This year's girl's soccer team will be remembered for years to come. With their new motto "theres only one first time" this team was the first ever in Melrose High history to qualify for the state tournament. Captains Liz Lahiff and Jess Cascio led the team to their first ever winning season with a record of 9-6-3. The girls began training for the season in June, waking up at 5:30am to participate in a rigorous college workout regimen led by Kara Mirachi. Coach Scott Thorton returned for his second season with the girls and successfully coached them to victory for their first time ever. In 2005 the team will graduate six seniors, Capt. Jess Cascio, Beth Harlow, Capt. Liz Lahiff, Samantha O'Leary, Christina Scarlatos and Susan Tremonte who will be deeply missed by the entire team. With a long list of firsts this year, two of the teams proudest accomplishments were, being the first team to beat league dominating Winchester 2-0 and beating their rivals Wakefield 2-1 in their last in-season game. The girls put in long hard hours on and off the field and they are known to be one of the closest teams in all of MHS. The girls will never forget quoting Mean Girls over and over, waking up at the crack of dawn, 120's, the yellow men, putting up Nellies' hair, encore, the bus rides, pasta parties, fudds, picnics, tping and FH team and "not wrestling". Most of all, the girls will cherish the memories they made together, no matter where they go they will always be MHS soccer girls and best of friends.

The 2004 Red Raider team enjoyed a tremendous amount of success in the fall season. Led by Co-Captains Mike Kent and Greg Webster the team posted a 9-1 record, which earned the a Middlesex League Title and a trip to the playoffs for the first time since 1982. Along with the captains, 20 other seniors contributed to the great success of the team. Senior Matt McKnight was a standout all year at defensive end and speedy wideouts, Jawara Loftis and Luke Cerretani seemed at times impossible to stop. With an offense that averaged 30 points a game and a defense that allowed 11 points per game, it was no wonder the team was playoff bound. The players would like to thank Coach Morris and his amazing crew of assistants for their tireless efforts all season long. The players would also like to send a special thanks to Coach Fogarty and wish the team of 2005 the best of luck.

After a disappointing record last season, the 2004-2005 Melrose High Lady Raiders Field Hockey Team made it clear that this year they wanted to go far . . . and that they did! With a tournament bid, the ladies finished strong with an overall regular season record of 11-5-2. The team led by co-captains Leah Gunner and Bahia Shortlidge, came up big with a tie against Reading and with a win against our rival, Wakefield. Fourth year coach Amy Pascarell, assisted by Sarah Bugee, whipped the girls into shape, determined to achieve our mission to make the state tournament. This year the girls did not have to wait until the last game, they dominated throughout the season with Senior leadership of Kristin Began, Chrissie Cronin, Caitlin Darling, Danielle Dausiewicz, Megan Loughnane, Liz Parro, and Sivan Vainer. The team was also powered by League All-Stars Leah Gunner, Dawn Powers, and Meg Shea. The team's success can be measured by not only an over 500 season, but also the memories and friendships that were made during team breakfasts, lunches, and dinners!

Led by co-captains Jill Sherlock and Racine Macdonald, the Melrose 2004 Football Cheerleaders had a fantastic season this year. With thirteen seniors we had the experience and leadership. Preparation for our season began with captains practices, conditioning, and camp throughout the summer. Once the football games started the girls got very busy with football games and soccer games and competition practices. After our hard work, we ended up reaching most of our goals like receiving our highest score yet in a competition. In our league competition, we did not place in the top 3, but still scored high enough to advance to the Regional Competition where we did very well. We made it through every game be it in the rain or snow, leading our crowd to cheer the football players to a victorious year. The seniors on this team have been working together or several years now and overall, this year was a great and to a great experience.

RACING TO THE FINISH LINE

Boys' Indoor Track began its 2005 season with high hopes, as members increased from 14 of last year to over 25 this year. Most of the veterans returned to compete for personal performances, as well as motivating and encouraging newcomers to the sport. The team is still quite young, but future generations will continue on advancing the athletic efforts already made. Standing out from the crowd this season are state qualifiers, Captain Dong Truong in the 600m, Captain Eugene Hill in the 55m dash, Sean Driscoll in the 300m and shot put, James Radziewicz in the 55m dash, and sophomore Dan Kurz in the 600m and 1000m races. The boys' team also qualified in the 4 x 400m relay and in the 4 x 200m relay. Although the team is still prospering, the boys managed to gain two wins this season against Belmont and Watertown.

The 2004-2005 girls' track team was extremely successful this year as they battled through the 2 ½ feet of snow. The girls were not going to allow the lack of an indoor track facility to get in their way. Running vigorously through the cold and the snow the girls were ready to take on the Middlesex League. Despite their record, the girls had major accomplishments: 1. Defeating Watertown and 2. State Qualifying times. Leading the way were senior captains Beth Harlow and Amanda Tai. Both Harlow and Tai qualified in the 4 x 400m relay along with junior Rene Lento and sophomore Andrea Nordberg. Harlow also qualified in the two mile and Lento qualified in the 600m race and came in 4th place at the Coach's Invitational Meet. BOYS ICE HOCKEY

Chris Charlton, Nick Wells, Brendan Cosgrove, Cam Murphy, Nick Lento, and Al Porcaro were our great senior leaders this year. Even though our record does not show what we wanted it to, we played hard every game and lost a few games we should have won. Our juniors, TJ Bagarella, Dylan Thorp, CJ Palmer, George Brickley, and Sean Morgan will have to step up next year in a big way. For future years these players will become the leaders including young players such as Mike Fimiani Billy Allen, and Sean Morris.

MAKING A BIG SPLASH!

The 2004-2005 season was an exciting one for the boys swim team. The team had 30 swimmers, a record number. Melrose tied for third in the Middlesex League with an overall record of 3-2-1. Captains Zack Ahrens and Greg Webster both qualified individually for states, along with the 400 Free relay team. In addition to Coach Whitworth, the team had the privilege of an assistant coach this year, MHS swim team alumnus, Henry Turner.

Boys Spring Track

Top left: What does Dong Truong do best? Besides Calculus projects for Dr. Peterson, he also excels at leaving his competitors in the dust. Top center: Junior Duane Teixeira has the crowd on its feet as he blows by his competition and achieves first place. Top right: From the look on his face, it is evident Alfred Porcoro uses every ounce of strength when throwing the shot put. Middle left: Captain Mark Migliorini takes a moment to mentally prepare for the shot put. Middle center: Nick McDonald and Matt Barbatti check out their competition during their free time in between races. Middle right: He's a man of great strength and power! He's CARL SACCONE! Carl uses all his strength to propel the shot put across the field. Below left: Adam Dion takes the handoff from Peter Lento and finishes off the final leg of the 4 X 100 with victory in sight. Bottom right: Sean Driscoll's strength, alone, is enough to invoke fear into his competitors. The Captain goes into the final straightaway neck and neck with his competitor, eventually earning a first place finish.

After coming off a 5-4 season with some close losses, and only losing three seniors to graduation, the 2005 Boys Spring Track team will be ready to do great things and will compete for the League Championship. Led by captains Sean Driscoll, Edward Hairston, and Mark Migliorini, this year's team is full of seniors who will be looked to for leadership, experience, and point production. Several members returning to the team qualified for the state meet last year. They include Chris Covino, Sean Driscoll, Mike Fitzpatrick, Edward Hairston, Eugene Hill, Jawara Loftis, Alfred Porcaro, John Savary, Eric Scofield, Duane Teixeira, and Dong Truong. With the most talent they have had in years, the 2005 Boys Spring Track team will have a lot of success.

"Running all the time/Running to the future/With you right by my side/Running, running as fast as we can"-No Doubt

Top left: What tough track boys! Seniors Chris Keohane and Brian Colborne are friends on and off the field. Top right: Using all the energy and strength he has, senior Michael Fitzpatrick sprints to the finish line to achieve another victory. Middle left: Nothing can stop this Melrose track boy from hurdling to first place! Middle center: Once again, seniors Eugene Hill and Jawara Loftis knock out the competition with 1-2 finishes. Middle right: Almost there! As he finishes his final lap of the one-mile, senior Chris Gilligan is close to tasting the sweetness of victory. Bottom right: Seniors Chris Keohane and Adam Dion prove their agility and speed during the 55 meter sprint.

Boys Baseball

The 2004 Varsity Baseball team finished with a record of 10-10. They made the state tournament for the second straight year. Unfortunately, the team lost to Tewksbury 5-3. The Team did enjoy some success as they beat Wakefield twice with key contributions from all the current seniors on the team, including Mike Kent, Nick Cappellucci, Luke Cerretani, Andrew Sambuco, and junior Charlie Chicconee. The Varsity team looks forward to another successful season in 2005. Leading the team are co-captains Nick Cappellucci, and Mike Kent. Other vital members to the varsity team are seniors Matthew McKnight, Richard Jessup, Nick Stein, Nick Lento, Tim Clark, Rob Blake, and junior Peter Pezzano. Hopefully, they will have another tournament bound season, filled with many wins.

Top right: Dawn Powers sets up at the plate determined to get a base hit. Top left: The 2004 Softball team gathers to prepare for another victory on the road! Middle left: Co-Captain Kerry Dillon's power with the bat does not compare to any player in the Middlesex League! Here, she makes another impressive hit for her teammates. Middle center: "Nose goes!" Leah Gunner, Denise Applegate, Amanda Desmond, and Danielle Dausiewicz show their teammates how it's done. Middle right: Not only does Laura Dillon strike out batters, but she also demonstrates how to destroy the ball up at bat. Bottom right: Coach Murphy provides the team with advice on how to improve their game.

The season is looking very promising for the Melrose Varsity Softball team. They have several returning players and the underclassmen also show great depth. There are a strong group of seniors who have been playing together for many years: Danielle Dausgiewicz, Amanda Desmond, Kerry Dillon, Leah Gunner, Caitlin Kingsbury, and Amanda Tai. Also returning are underclassmen Dawn Powers, Laura Dillon, and Rachel Towle. The girls rough it through the cold March weather and always give their best effort through the season. Led by co-captains Kerry Dillon and Amanda Tai, the 2005 MHS Softball team will continue to be a force to be reckoned with in the Middlesex League.

Slamming Aces into the Middlesex League!

Center: The juniors of the MHS 2005 Boy's Tennis Team: Kevin Whalen, Greg Penta, Charlie Graf, Sean Murphy, Travis Winder

After coming off of a 2004 season dominated by seniors, the 2005 Boy's Tennis Team is preparing for a rebuilding season. Although the team lacks any senior members, it has attracted many juniors to the team. For many juniors, the 2004 season was their first experience with competitive tennis. During this time, they perfected their form, learned the rules of the game, and all became avid tennis players. Under the instruction of Coach Jim Atkinson, the 2005 Boy's Tennis Team hopes to work hard at their game, while also capturing some Middlesex League wins. Despite their lack of seniors, the tennis team is full of aspiring talent, competitive players, and a winning attitude.

The Queens of the Court and the Middlesex League!

Girls Tennis

Top left: Gillian White and Katie O'Koniewski prove the tennis friendship is present on and off the court. Top right: After competing in their J.V. matches, Sarah Luxemburg, Jillian Falo, Catherine Carey, Bethany Hickey, and Jean Adams relax and watch the Varsity matches. Middle: Last year's 2004 Girls Tennis Team! The team will always remember the fun times they had with the seniors of the 2004 tennis team.

After a successful tournament bound tennis season, the Girls 2005 Tennis Team prepares to once again compete against a tough Middlesex League and achieve tournament status. Led by captains Jessica Porter, Betty Krechmer, and Megan Shea, the team will train during the winter and enter the spring season as a serious and competitive team. Despite competing in one of the toughest leagues in the state, the team hopes to surpass last year's record of 11-9. While Jess Porter dominates the singles court, her fellow seniors Meryl Binder, Betty Krechmer, and Katie O'Koniewski will offer serious competition on the doubles court. Juniors Megan Shea, Gillian White, and Liz Sheerin will also add depth to the team composed largely of underclassmen. The tennis team is eager to start their season off with success, and cannot wait to experience another great spring on the tennis courts.

NOW PLAYING: FACULTY

The faculty at Melrose High School has played a number of roles to ensure the success of their students. As teachers, they consistently provide us with new information and they always create an exceptional learning atmosphere. Many faculty have stepped into the classroom in order to ensure the success of Melrose High students. Fortunately, for the students, the faculty at Melrose is dedicated to their jobs and will always reach out and help the students. The past four years have been a wonderful educational experience and the students will never forget the faculty's kindness, patience, and helpfulness. The memories made and lessons learned in the classroom will remain with the students forever.

NOW PLAYING UNDERCLASSMEN

From the freshmen to the juniors, all of the students at MHS express their own personalities. They do so by showing their unique styles, athletic abilities, and academic excellence. Will every obstacle they come to, they keep smiles on their faces. Even though the juniors disappointed us in the powderpuff game, we still had a blast shoving and tackling them. The sophomores won the intense battle of spirit week with their hilarious skit and sunny yellow hallway. What would the high school be without underclassmen? Who would fill the hallways in May when the seniors are gone? The underclass really does help to make the four years of high school a great time.

NOW PLAYING: ADVERTISEMENTS

We would like to thank all the businesses, families, and friends who placed an advertisement in the 2005 yearbook. With your contributions, we were able to create an amazing yearbook that we will cherish for years to come. The yearbook allows us to remember our high school memories forever. Once again, to all of the individuals who purchased advertisements, thank you! You made this yearbook possible.
